IF Sufficient encouragement be of real, the Subscriber proposes to pubish, in one volume octavo, the Jour als of the Conventions of the Province of Maryland in the years 1774, '5 and

'6. It is believed that there are not more than two copies of these Journals ow extant; and from the circumstance that they were printed in pamphlet form, and unbound, it may be fairly concluded that they, too, must in a few pears be destroyed by the more decay of time. These Journals are the only authentic evidence of the Political History of Maryland, during that interesring and unquiet period. Although we have, in abundance, histories Maryland, as connected with the asso iation of Provinces and Colonies, at at time formed, for mutual protecti on against the improper assumption of power on the part of the Mother Coun-try, yet none of these works embrace what may be termed its Domestic and

Internal Political History. This part of the history of Marvshould be her pride to hand down to posterity, not only on account of its deep interest, but as a public State Record of the voluntary sacrifi ces, daring spirit, and determined re-period of doubt and dismay. In the confident expectation that the citizens of Maryland will consider the proposed publication of sufficient importance to entitle it to their patron ige, the Subscriber is induced to issue
